DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. Information Disclosure Statement submitted by applicant on 09/19/2003 and 02/15/2005 has been considered. See attached PTO-1449.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP10222312, hereinafter JP.

As per claim 1, JP discloses a storage device, comprising: plural storage volumes for storing data [first memory, second memory and third memory]; means for receiving a request for update of the data at a prescribed point in time to be stored in a first of the storage volumes after the prescribed point in time [a portion or all of the data acquired by the first memory controller are stored in a first memory medium]; means for storing a duplicate of the data at the prescribed point in time requested to be updated onto a second of the storage volumes [the updated data are recorded in a second memory medium]; and means for storing in an unused storage area of a third of the storage volumes a duplicate of the data at the prescribed point in time requested to be updated according to a state of the second storage volume [when an amount of updated data exceeds a constant rate, backing up a copy of a portion or all of the updated data to a third memory medium].

As per claim 9; claim 9 encompasses the same scope of the invention as that of claim 1. Therefore, claim 9 is rejected for the same reasons as stated above with respect to claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 2-8 and 10-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP in view of Yuasa (US Patent No. 6636953).

As per claims 2-8, JP discloses the claimed invention, but fails to specifically teach storing the duplicate of the data at the prescribed point in time requested to be updated onto an unused storage area of the third storage volume when a storage capacity of the unused storage area of the second storage volume is smaller than a judgment value.

Yuasa teaches an apparatus having a display unit for showing a storage capacity, the user is able to select storage medium for the content to be stored thereon, showing a warning to the user if not enough space available and a control unit for receiving and storing contents in the memory, wherein the control unit judges whether the storage medium has an enough free space to store the content and if there is not enough free space, the control unit stores the content to another (external device) storage medium [column 2, lines 43-62 and column 29, line 35 through column 31, 53].

Accordingly, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the current invention to use the concepts of storing the content in another storage medium if there is not enough space in the medium as being taught by Yuasa into JP's method of backing up of the data in order to eliminate writing of the new data over the content that is already stored in the storage medium.

As per claims 10-16; claims 10-16 encompass the same scope of the invention as those of claims 2-8. Therefore, claims 10-16 are rejected for the same reasons as stated above with respect to claims 2-8.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

US Patent No. 6862671 (Bergsten) discloses a first, second and third storage for making mirroring and backup.

US Patent No. 6519581 (Hofmann) discloses a display for warning the user with the information in regard to the disk space.

US Patent No. 5644698 (Cannon) teaches maintaining data consistency between storage volumes.
